Eleventh Sunday after Trinity

Collect

God of glory,
the end of our searching,
help us to lay aside
all that prevents us from seeking your kingdom,
and to give all that we have to gain the pearl beyond all price,
through our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Ephesians 4.25-5.2

So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbours, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil. Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labour and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy. Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

John 6.35,41-51

Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.'

Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' They were saying, 'Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus answered them, 'Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, "And they shall all be taught by God." Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

Summer Sunday Evenings

Tonight: Stories of Faith with Elizabeth Flood.

Next week: Andy James.

Summer Reading

Discussion groups are planned for 4 September (Swing Time & Phoebe) and 9 September (Living Well & Silence and Honeycakes).

Garden Watering Rota

Please sign up in the welcome hall to water the All Saints garden.

David's Collation & Induction

Invitations to David's induction as Vicar of the Benefice of Cotham Parish Church and St Paul's Clifton, Bristol are in the welcome hall. A coach has been booked with tickets at £20 per person. The coach will leave All Saints at 1.30pm on Wednesday 5 September returning in the early hours of the morning of Thursday 6 September.

Accommodation required

A 16-year-old student from Germany wishes to stay with an English family for 1 or 2 weeks from 13-27 October 2018 or at Easter 2019 as a paying guest or on an exchange basis. Please contact Alan Littell (alan.littell@btinternet.com) for details.

4all's 10th Community Autumn Fair, Saturday 22 September, 2.00-5.00.

Sign-up sheets are now in the Welcome Hall. We need lots of volunteers on the day and before, so please put your name down to help now. If you know anyone who has nice things to sell – crafts, clothes, beauty products, gifts, jewellery, cards etc – do encourage them to take a stall. More info from jenny@the-picks.co.uk 07432 118859.

Lambeth Refugees Welcome

Help to make yellow 'roses' for a display in Trinity Gardens as part of the London Design Festival 15-23rd September. Sew, knit, crochet or pom pom your roses out of fabric or wool and leave a bit trailing to attach them to a fence. Roses needed early September.

St Michael's Fellowship

SMF has received huge donations for their families in need and volunteers are now needed to help prepare them. This is how you can help:

- Do some loads of washing to make sure everything is in tip-top condition.
- Spare a few hours on Sunday 16 September to pack parcels.

Contact fundraising@stmichaelsfellowship.org.uk if you can help.

Please note, no further donations are required.

Prayer Matters for Sundays 29 July to 2 September 2018

Please keep in your prayers:

David, Jo, Bethany, Jakey & Hannah Stephenson - give thanks for David's ministry with us over the past 12 years, and for all that the family have meant and shared with us over that time. Pray for them as they move to new beginnings in Bristol, and for us as we miss their presence among us. May the Lord encourage and inspire us as we go through the interregnum and he leads us forward into our own new beginnings at All Saints.

Brexit - that the negotiations between our Government and the other EU countries will result in the best possible outcome for the benefit of the UK and the EU alike.

Examination results - for those still anxiously waiting for examination results likely to affect their life choices. Whatever the outcome, may they make the best of their opportunities.

Summer Holiday Period - that for as many as possible this will be a time of relaxation and refreshment before the Autumn; but keep especially in your prayers, those who keep our services going; those working in the leisure industries for whom this is a busy time; those for whom the school holidays is a difficult time with caring for and keeping their children happy and engaged.

The charities that All Saints' supports in various ways: L'Arche London, Welcare, St Michael's Fellowship, Foundation for Relief and Reconciliation in the Middle East, Centre 70, Five Talents, 4All, The Children's Society, Christian Aid, Norwood Foodbank, Mothers' Union, Afghanaid, Care 4 Calais and others - pray for them as they care for those in need.

Those to be married: Christopher Leiwe and Anna Tostevin, whose banns are being read in August.

Those who are sick or in need: Gina Vaughan, Mary Goodlad, Ronald Alcock, Cass, Ruth Bennet, Beth, Hyacinth Brown, Wisdom Kari Kari, George Farmer, Zee Zee Gwaite, Jan Ross, Katie Gedge, Anthony Backs, Tishawah Binns, Orlando Gordon, Dazlyn Dawkins, Lucille Simpson, Jenny Pick, Ben, Thomas Hardy, Sarah Mullen, Nick Penrose, Jane Errington, Pat Wilson, Do Jones, Kate Mason, Isobel Ward, and those who support and care for them.

Those whose Year's Mind falls at this time: Silindile Ngema (2013), Barbara Capron (1981).

Commemorated on 9 August: Mary Sumner

Mary Elizabeth Sumner (née Heywood) was born in 1828 at Swinton. In 1848, she married a young curate, George Henry Sumner, nephew of Archbishop Sumner, who was himself to become Bishop of Guildford in 1888. A mother of three children, Mary called a meeting in 1876 at which the Mothers' Union was founded, providing a forum in which to unite mothers of all classes in the aim of bringing up children in the Christian faith. Baptism and parental example were its two basic principles. At first a parochial organisation, it grew steadily into an international concern, encouraging the ideal of a Christian home. The Mothers' Union now has over 4 million members throughout the world. Its membership (which includes men and women without children) offering Christian care for all families, empowering women, and enabling them to care for and support their children. Her Majesty the Queen is its Patron. Mary died on this day in 1921, aged 92.

Thought for the summer: The Mary Sumner Prayer

All this day, O Lord, let me touch as many lives as possible for thee;
and every life I touch, do thou by thy spirit quicken,
whether through the word I speak, the prayer I breathe,
or the life I live. Amen
