Sunday 5 May Sixth Sunday of Easter

10am All Age Eucharist
In All Saints and on our Youtube channel

Music & Hymns
263 (omit 5,6), Christ be our light, In bread we bring you Lord, 420 (omit 2)
Anthem: I give to you a new commandment (Nardone)

Collect Risen Christ,
by the lakeside you renewed your call
to your disciples:
help your Church to obey your command and draw the nations to the fire of your love,
to the glory of God the Father.

Post Communion
God our Father, whose Son Jesus Christ gives the water of eternal life:
may we thirst for you,
the spring of life and source of
goodness,
through him who is alive and reigns,
now and for ever.

Readings

Acts 10.44-end

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, 'Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?' So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

John 15.9-17

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

Prayer Matters

Please keep in your prayers this week:

Ascension Day on Thursday 9 May

We celebrate the completion of Christ's time on earth. Although no longer physically present, our crucified and risen Lord remains close to each one of us. May we follow His example, showing love and compassion to those we meet in our daily lives.

All those elected last Thursday

Especially the new London mayor and London Assembly members. May they show wisdom as they deal with the complex issues of our city.

APCM on 20 May

We pray for everyone on our PCC, giving thanks for all who have served our church and those who are continuing. We also pray for those who are considering having their names put forward for election. May they be guided in their decision.

Dulwich Festival from 11 May

We pray that everyone entering our church for the Artist's Open House will be inspired by our wonderful sacred space and the creativity of all those participating in the Festival from our community.

World conflicts

We continue to pray for a peaceful solution where violence currently reigns.

Charity of the week:

4ALL: Building Community in West Dulwich

The local community charity founded by All Saints members. 4-all.org.uk. We give thanks for all that 4All has achieved and pray for all involved.

Those whose year's mind falls at this time

Jack Foreman-Peck, George Fellowes Prynne (original architect of All Saints West Dulwich), Dorothy (Alexandra) Dudding, Audrey (June) Morby, (Robert George Edward) "Ted" Ray.

Commemorated on 8 May:

Julian of Norwich, Spiritual Writer

On this day in the year 1373, when Julian was thirty years old and suffering from what was considered to be a terminal illness, she experienced a series of sixteen visions, which revealed aspects of the love of God. Following her recovery, she spent the next twenty years of her life pondering their meaning and recorded her conclusions in what became the first book written by a woman in English, The Revelations of Divine Love. At an unknown point in her life, she became an anchoress attached to the Church of St Julian in Norwich. She died around the year 1417.

Thought for the week

God loved us before he made us; and his love has never diminished and never shall.
Julian of Norwich
